By downloading these images, whether purchased or given out as a freebie, you are granted a "license to use" the designs for personal use, scrap-for-others (S4O), or scrap-4-hire (S4H) to create handmade items such as scrapbooks or greeting cards. You are also agreeing to the detailed terms of this user license.

You CAN:

- Use these graphics for your scrapbooking layouts and crafting projects.
- Recolor, resize, and otherwise change these graphics for your scrapbooking layouts and crafting projects.
- Sell a limited number (not more than 4 albums or layouts and not more than 50 greeting cards*) of items made using these graphics in printed format only. The product must be an item created with these graphics incorporated into them. It may not be a duplicate of, or direct print of the original design, either exactly as is or redesigned.
 If you need a higher quantity, please purchase a Commercial Use license.*
- When used for professional scrap-for-others (S4O) or scrap-4-hire (S4H) albums or layouts, one backup copy of the finished product may be distributed to your customer on CD or DVD without written permission.

You CANNOT:

- Change these graphics in any way or combine them with other images and then claim them as your own.
- Create digital brushes, tubes, or shape templates from these graphics.
- Repackage, resell, redistribute, or share these graphics in any way including via e-mail, online groups, newsgroups, chats, etc. If you do this you are a PIRATE and, while we all love Johnny Dep, pirating is stealing. Don't do it. ☹

If you post scrapbook pages or other projects online or submit them to magazines using any of these images, please credit me as the designer. Be sure to send me an email so I can go look!

When giving appropriate credit, here's a few sample formats:
